CHILD ABUSE

Our mission is to strengthen our community through healing the trauma of abuse, violence and neglect and promoting safe, healthy and stable families through research based services.

This past year has been one of vision and accomplishment. With the opening of the Kosair Charities Child Advocacy Center and the new agency campus, we begin a new chapter in our mission to end abuse and violence in our community.

The Kosair Charities Child Advocacy Center will improve and expand our services for sexually abused children by bringing together child serving agencies, medical services, forensic services and mental health services into a state-of-the-art facility.

Our commitment to child abuse prevention in the community has been strengthened in our program leadership of HANDS for Jefferson County and the creation and launch of the Beacon training program to prevent child sexual abuse.

Completion of the Family Service Center brings together the agency's services and administrative support to improve service delivery and increase efficiency, Bringing all of these partners together under one roof, we make this a better community for families and children. We hope to continue to be a leader and a model other communities will follow in their own commitment to end abuse, violence and neglect.

We have successfully realized the merger and transition of leadership that was a result of a five year plan.

We are grateful to all who helped make this possible and it is our hope to build on these successes to make this community a safer place for families and children.

Dan Fox, CEO, Pam Darnall, President, Bill Meyer III, Chairman of the Board

Child and Family Services is a broad-based family and individual counseling program serving child and adult victims of violence with proven interventions. Without proper assistance children who experience abuse are more likely to commit crimes, abuse alcohol and drugs, and suffer from depression. Children may suffer lifelong effects without treatment.

HANDS provides voluntary visitation for first time and expectant parents that begins during pregnancy or shortly after the child's birth. Our services help foster healthy pregnancy and births, stable child growth and development, safe homes and self-sufficient families.

The Kosair Charities Child Advocacy Center is the region's only facility dedicated to the intervention and treatment of child sexual abuse. The KCCAC brings together the expertise of our staff, police, physicians, Child Protective Services and the Commonwealth Attorney. Forensic medical exams, specialized interviews and mental health assessments are provided to assure families receive needed services.

Family & School Services are structured school-based programs designed to provide after school support to improve academic success and parent engagement. We emphasize character building, learning, social competencies, building a core support team between student, parent and school.

Family Stabilization Program provides assistance for families and individuals at high risk of homelessness. We help families develop their own plan to become stable, self-sufficient and maintain safe housing as well as providing crisis intervention.

PAL is a Drug Free Communities Program representing the Parkhill, Algonquin, and Old Louisville neighborhoods in Louisville. The program focuses on promoting resiliency and enhancing young people's ability to resist risks and make good decisions. We believe these youth and community partners can have a profound effect on preventing violence in the lives of children and families.

After less than one year of construction and over three years of fundraising and planning, F&CP cut the ribbon on the Kosair Charities Child Advocacy Center and the Family Services Center on June 21st.

Over 300 guests attended and featured presenters included Dan Fox, F&CP CEO; Bill Meyer, F&CP Board Chair; Jack Conway, Kentucky Attorney General; Sadiqa Reynolds, Louisville Director of Community Services (pictured here); Jerry Ward, Chairman, Kosair Charities and Pam Darnall, Family & Children's Place President.

The Kosair Charities Child Advocacy Center is an innovated approach to the prevention and treatment of chid sexual abuse.

Currently only a handful of advocacy centers throughout the nation follow this model, providing intervention and medical services, forensic interviews and child protection and prosecution services.

The facility is headquarters to the Crimes Against Childrens Unit of Louisville Metro Police and Child Protection Services of the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services, Department for Community Based Services. Members of the Commonwealth Attorney's Office and physicians from the University of Louisville are part of the center's team.
